Florian Bruder focuses his practice on advising investors, creditors and debtors on cross-border acquisitions, restructurings, especially financial and bond restructurings, and as well as insolvencies.

He covers all aspects of financial and corporate restructurings, in out-of-court as well as in-court situations. This includes all legal aspects of national and international insolvency law as well as claw-back and directors' liabilities.

A particular focus is on structuring / risk mitigation and sales and acquisitions in insolvency related situations including preparation and implementation of cross-border restructuring and insolvency proceedings.

Furthermore, Florian Bruder has significant experience in international insolvency disputes, also in relation to US Chapter 15 proceedings and arbitration proceedings, both in favor and against the administrator.

Florian Bruder joined DLA Piper in 2016. Previously, he worked at Kirkland & Ellis International LLP and Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP in Munich and London.

Florian is a member of Council of INSOL Europe. He was involved in the INSOL Europe Academic Forum as a member of the management board and is actively participating in the UNCITRAL Working Group V (Insolvency Law) sessions in the INSOL Europe delegation. At the INSOL Europe Annual Congress 2019 in Copenhagen Florian was co-chair of the technical committee.

Florian is author of various publications and articles in corporate and insolvency law. He is regularly involved as speaker in international and domestic conferences and workshops on restructuring and insolvency law, in particular on European and international insolvency law and the EU Directive on restructuring frameworks.

Florian has received the award Handelsblatt/Best Lawyers in Germany 2023 for restructuring and insolvency and is highly recommended by the WirtschaftsWoche ranking 2023 as lawyer for restructuring.
