

ESTONIA

By Peeter Viirsalu
Associate Partner at TGS BALTIC
Tartu, Estonia

In 2016 the Ministry of Justice has initiated a term of reference to audit the existing insolvency laws in Estonia.

The working group has not yet presented its proposals for amendments.

Still it is known that the major topics of discussion involve the questions of making the reorganisation and debt restructuring proceedings more easily accessible, providing better possibilities for third-party financing and also the questions of giving the creditors the right to initiate the proceedings.