Jean has acquired 15 years' experience on a national level, and with his team, is currently working on approximately 200 turnaround cases per year.

Within the team, Jean specializes in cross-border insolvency situations.

Having studied law and finance in France with experiences abroad, he then went on to working for Air France, implementing all the legal aspects of the airline alliance Skyteam. He has stepped up the ladder by becoming the managing partner of an IP firm, CBFASSOCIÉS.

The firm, consisting of 30 lawyers and accountants and 7 offices across France including the Indian and Pacific Oceans, works with businesses and organizations of all sizes, either as a court-appointed administrator or with self-referred businesses, to deal with financial or legal issues. CBFASSOCIÉS works with management and counsels to restructure both the operational and financial aspects of the business to avoid failure and to make it viable in the long term. CBFASSOCIÉS also negotiates actively in preventive restructurings with banks, bondholders and creditors to restructure debts and independently helps new management strategies to set up a restructuring plan.
