

Christophe THEVENOT is a Founding Partner of THEVENOT PARTNERS, Insolvency Practitioners, Paris.

After gaining professional experience in Aeronautics in Canada, Christophe moved on to a law firm specialised in insolvency and recovery. In 1997 he established himself as a Judicial Administrator, named since in several major cases by different courts of commerce in France, and mainly in Paris. He has specialized himself on preventive restructuring (conciliation, « ad hoc » mandate) and built a core competence in Strategic Negotiations and Mediation. He and his partners have also conducted several Safeguard Procedures, Administrators mandates, Temporary administrator or private receivership.

He is a past President of the Conseil National des Administrateurs Judiciaires et Mandataires Judiciaires. (National Council of French Insolvency Practitioners) and a past President of ASPAJ, Association syndicale professionnelle des Administrateurs judiciaires.

He is also Member of the Board and Maître de Conférences at HEC Entrepreneurs.

Member of the Board of EIP : European Insolvency Practitioners Association.

Current member of the board of CNAJMJ in charge of international affairs.

Representative for CNAJMJ at UNCITRAL United Nation Commission on International Trade Law – Group V Insolvency.

Corresponding member of VID (Verband Insolvenzverwalter Deutschland) since 2019.

Member of INSOL Europe, Current Co-Chair of the TRIP Group(Turnaround, Restructuring and Insolvency Professionals)

Christophe is graduated from Harvard Business School (AMP), he holds a Mastère Spécialisé from HEC Entrepreneurs, and is a graduate of Ecole Supérieure de Commerce de Marseille.

Adress : 42, rue de Lisbonne
75008 PARIS
FRANCE
Email : cthevenot@thevenotpartners.eu
www.thevenotpartners.eu

